I have had some people ask about the “Affirmation of Allegiance”, in concern to it being an oath and that the Bible says not to swear oaths and let your yea be your yea and your nay be your nay etc. and also about revoking other oaths like the Magna Carta etc.

This was my answer to these questions, so everyone is clear about the Affirmation...

Firstly, it is not an oath, it is an “Affirmation”, and this is what I do, as you say, in the Bible it says not to do oaths and in Matthew 5:37 “But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.” K.J.V., if you look in The Commonwealth of Australia Act 1900 (Imp.) (On the last page) you will see there is an Oath or an Affirmation you can take, the oath requires that you hold a Bible in your hand while you take the Oath, The Affirmation is affirming (affirm = Yes) your truth, it is saying this is my yes to this statement made here by me, is true and correct..

Secondly, It says “I revoke by annulment any other affirmation, oath, contract, pledge, vow and allegiance, entered into knowingly or unknowingly, that may conflict with this devout undertaking now made here; and” It only revoke that which is in conflict with it, God, K.J.V., English Common law, Imperial Law (Magna Carta), Equity, Natural Law etc. do not conflict with it, it would only be Roman/Babylonian law used by the Corporate that is in conflict with it... and a lot of people have unknowingly entered into these things – We are Known by our actions, (Tacit Consent, Silent Contracts – Presumptions and Assumptions etc.) - that is why it is there...
